

Call For Participation

Deadline for applications: April 15, 2019

Dear Colleagues!

We are pleased to announce the 11th International theoretical and practical conference “e-Kazan 2019” to take place from May 21 to April 22, 2019.

The International Conference “e-Kazan 2019” invites researchers, practitioners and academic staff to present their research findings, works in progress, case studies and conceptual advances in areas of work where education and technology intersect.

The main objective of “e-Kazan 2019” is to highlight, promote and disseminate the new technologies and innovations in the field of e-learning. The wide scope of “e-Kazan 2019” should provide an excellent opportunity for sharing experiences, knowledge and ideas amongst researchers and scientists from academia, practitioners, vendors and government departments.

Venue description

Kazan is the capital and largest city of the Republic of Tatarstan, Russia. With a population of 1,143,535, it is the eighth most populous city in Russia. Kazan lies at the confluence of the Volga and Kazanka Rivers in European Russia. The Kazan Kremlin is a World Heritage Site.

Kazan has a busy cultural life. In addition to classical art, the city encourages the development of contemporary art trends as well.

There are more than 30 institutes of higher education (universities) in Kazan. More than 140 000 students are educated in the city.

Kazan Federal University, third oldest university in Russian Federation was founded in 1804.

Kazan is unique multi-national and multi-confessional city. Major religions in Kazan city are Sunni Islam and Eastern Orthodoxy. Minor religions are Catholicism, Protestantism, Judaism, Krishna's and the Baha'i Faith.

The conference will feature several excursions to the Kazan Kremlin and the Qol Sharif Mosque, Kazan museums, Raifa Orthodox Monastery and the ancient Isle of Sviyajsk near Kazan.
